

Machine Operator

Job description

Department:

Wire Business Unit

Location:

Fowlmere (UK)

Reporting to:

Foreman

Job Band:

Competitive salary.

Job summary

There is a vacant at the Wire Business Unit. Applicants need to enjoy taking an active part in a busy team, willing to support fellow team members and to commit to work with enthusiasm.

They will be responsible to run mills or other machines within the wireshop as required by the foreman maintaining a high level of quality and following procedures.

Areas of responsibility

- To run mills or other machines as directed according to the agreed standards in order to achieve targets set.
- To report any problems with machines i.e. mechanical / electrical or product to the foreman and assist in the repair in order to minimise downtime.
- Maintain a high level of housekeeping and safety in the immediate work area so that a safe and clean working environment is maintained for all staff.
- To produce all wire, according to agreed quality standards in order to meet the customer specification
- Maintain stocks of rolls and consumables required, report short falls to foreman.
- Put forward suggestions for improvements to working practises and quality in the production area so that the overall effectiveness of the department is improved.
- To ensure that the relevant section of the production quality control document is filled.

Decision making authority

- N.A.

Key metrics

- Output against to target.
- Any downtime logged reasons for that recorded.
- Visual inspection, Health & Safety Officer reports.
- Feedback from customers.
- QC reports.
- Stocks available, downtime.
- Ideas put forward, ideas implemented.

Desired competencies

- An engineering mechanical background would be advantageous but not essential.
- Previous hands on experience working in a factory with machinery equipment would be desired.
- Forklift truck licence would be desired.

Main job / role (Customer, People, Finance, Process)

- A machine operator is required to operate special purpose wire manufacturing equipment in our very busy wireshop, and assist in other areas where necessary.
- Full training will be provided and the successful applicant will be capable of working accurately and methodically to meet delivery deadlines.

Miscellaneous

Long hours or/and shift-working might be expected during busy periods.